Kimmmie Candy is pleased to introduce its newest product, Corn Bits, a candy coated, chocolate covered corn nut. It takes one of our favorite savory snacks, Corn Nuts, and combines it with creamy milk chocolate and a sweet, crunchy candy shell.

The product has been reviewed recently by the two most widely read candy blogs in the country, Candy Blog and Candy Critic (links to these reviews can be found below), sites whose reviews and opinions are respected and read by candy lovers all over the world. Both sites enjoyed the Corn Bits and gave positive reviews.

Kimmmie Candy is the only candy company making this product and is proud to be receiving the attention of candy lovers worldwide!
